

STATE MOTOR VEHICLE DRIVER RECORD CHECK

In most states, individuals must certify they are the owner of the driving record/license history they are purchasing online. Many states have a form or an online registration process for businesses who frequently seek individual driving records.

North Carolina	The North Carolina Division of Motor Vehicles' (DMV) has developed the North Carolina Transportation Notification System (NC TNS). This system is designed to provide subscribers with up to the minute detailed information on any licensed driver within the state of North Carolina. With NC TNS your agency can review driving records for occurrences of convictions, suspensions, disqualifications and points. Benefits of NC TNS are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 24/7 access to driver records • Reports current driver status conditions directly from the DMV State Automatic Driver License System. (SADLS) • DMV Driver Help Desk assistance Currently, DMV is piloting the system statewide. You may participate in the pilot at no cost to your agency. The end of the pilot program has not been determined and participation is voluntary. To participate in the program you must complete the following steps: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Send an email on company letter head requesting access to the system. 2. The email should be addressed and sent to: Attn: Trenetta Williamson Data-control@ncdot.gov
